

HEALTH ADMINISTRATION, MASTER OF (M.H.A.)/JURIS DOCTOR (J.D.) FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND [DUAL DEGREE]

Advanced study in health administration and law is available through a dual degree program co-sponsored by the department and the schools of law at the University of Richmond. The program leads to the awarding of the Master of Health Administration and Juris Doctor degrees.

Participants are provided the necessary expertise either to represent clients within the health care industry or to function as legal policy-makers or administrators who fully appreciate the legal environment of the health care field. Applicants for this program are required to meet the admission requirements of each program. For information regarding the dual degree program, contact the director of the program.

The M.H.A. curriculum sequence of the M.H.A./J.D. degree is shown below. Students take a total of 48 credit hours of M.H.A. course work that includes a three-credit-hour internship.
