The Department of Art History offers programs that acquaint students with the humanistic discipline of art historical inquiry. While providing students with the opportunity for a broad education drawing on the liberal arts and humanities, the department also emphasizes a close bond with the studio and performing arts and enjoys a close relationship with the other departments in the School of the Arts.

The department offers a broad-based education in the humanistic discipline of art history at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.

Overseas studies are available through university-sponsored programs abroad in Europe and Asia. Graduate assistantships and fellowships are available to full-time graduate students.

Students who complete the requirements for the below will receive a Master of Arts in Art History.

- Art History, Master of Arts (M.A.) with a concentration in historical studies (<https://bulletin.vcu.edu/graduate/school-arts/art-history/art-history-ma-concentration-historical-studies/>)
