

MISSION

The mission of the VCU School of Dentistry:

- Education of highly qualified dental professionals
- Research that advances the understanding of oral health, disease and effective treatment
- Service to the community
- Improved oral and general health of our patients and the general population