

IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Students must provide picture identification, preferably a VCUCard, for in-person access to financial aid records. For the student's protection, information provided over the telephone and email may be limited if the financial aid staff member is not confident of the student's identity.