PHILOSOPHY, BACHELOR OF ARTS (B.A.) WITH A CONCENTRATION IN ETHICS AND PHILOSOPHY OF AI

The Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy with a concentration in ethics and philosophy of AI requires a minimum of 120 credits, with at least 30 of those credits in philosophy. Fifteen of these credits must be selected from upper-level philosophy courses.

Students who are interested in the philosophy of technology, the philosophy of cognitive science, or ethical questions concerning the use of artificial intelligence (and who may wish to pursue graduate work involving AI or AI governance) will probably want to choose the ethics and philosophy of AI concentration.

Student learning outcomes Philosophy core outcomes

Upon completing this program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a good knowledge of and facility with the methods and concepts of modern, analytic philosophy
- Demonstrate a good knowledge of the current state of academic discussion of some of the central philosophical topics
- Demonstrate some knowledge of the history of philosophy, including both major themes and movements and some specific figures and systems
- Demonstrate the ability to think critically and systematically about philosophical problems, both abstract and practical, and to write clearly and cogently about them
- Demonstrate the ability to construct and analyze arguments clearly and cogently, independently of their subject matter

Ethics and philosophy of AI concentration-specific outcomes

- Demonstrate the ability to describe and analyze ethically relevant features of a variety of different applications of artificial intelligence
- Demonstrate the ability to clearly present and critically analyze arguments about the relationships between artificial intelligence, morality, the human mind and cognition
