The page contains information about a minor in Philosophy of Law, which consists of 24 credits. The minor includes a variety of courses, each with its own title and credit hours. The course choices are divided into mandatory and elective courses. The mandatory courses are listed first, followed by the elective courses. The total hours for the minor are 24, as specified in the table.